

BYLAWS
OF
COOL ROOF RATING COUNCIL, INC.

*Effective August 1, 2003 by vote of Membership
Amended by vote of Membership June 16, 2026*

ARTICLE 1: PRINCIPAL OFFICE AND RESIDENT AGENT

Section 1. Principal Office

The principal office of the Cool Roof Rating Council, Inc., a non-profit corporation incorporated under the laws of the State of Maryland (hereinafter, the “Corporation”), shall be in the State of Maryland. The Corporation may have such other office or offices at such suitable place or places within or without the State of Maryland as may be designated from time to time by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.

Section 2. Resident Agent

The Corporation shall have and continuously maintain in service a resident agent in the State of Maryland, who shall be an individual resident of the State of Maryland or a Maryland corporation, whether for-profit or not-for-profit.

ARTICLE 2: PURPOSES

It is not uncommon for the temperature in cities to be several degrees higher than the surrounding countryside, which is subject to the same climatological conditions. This Urban Heat Island Effect increases the usage of energy to cool our cities and contributes to increased air pollution. The use of more reflective surfaces, coupled with other measures, could appreciably reduce this effect. In furtherance of this goal, the purposes of the Corporation are: to implement and communicate fair, accurate, and credible radiative energy performance rating systems for roof, wall, or pavement surfaces; to support research into energy-related radiative properties of those surfaces, including durability of those properties and durability of the affected system(s); and to provide education and objective support to parties interested in understanding and comparing various product options.

The Corporation shall have and exercise all powers necessary and convenient to affect the educational purposes for which the organization is organized, subject to the limitations specified in the Corporation’s Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE 3: MEMBERS

No proxy shall be valid for a period greater than 11 months, unless otherwise provided in the proxy. A proxy executed by or on behalf of a member shall be deemed valid unless challenged at or prior to its exercise. Voting on all matters, including the election of the Board of Directors, may be conducted in person, including by ballot, or by ballot transmitted by mail or by electronic transmission. In the event of a tied vote in the election of the Board of Directors that results in one or more Board of Director seats being unfilled, a tiebreaker election will be held to resolve the tie. The tiebreaker election will be conducted within 45 days of the initial vote. The tiebreaker election will be conducted to select from among the candidates that tied in the initial election, and will be subject to the same provisions as described by these bylaws. At any adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the original meeting. Section 7. Telephone Conference.

The Board of Directors shall be vested with the powers to appoint and remunerate agents and employees, to disburse the funds of the Corporation, and to adopt such rules and regulations for the conduct of its business, responsibility and authority as shall be deemed advisable, insofar as such delegation of authority is not inconsistent with or repugnant to the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws of the Corporation (in their present form or as they may be amended) or to any applicable law. The directors shall be elected by the members of the Corporation at the annual meeting of the members or by mail or electronic transmission ballot before the meeting.

Section 3. Term of Office.

Directors shall be divided into three classes so that approximately one-third of the directors shall be elected each year. Each director of the Corporation shall serve for a term of three (3) years except as shorter terms are required to initiate rotation. Each term shall begin at the Board of Directors meeting following the annual Board of Directors election. Directors shall be eligible for election for three (3) consecutive terms. After serving three (3) consecutive terms, a director must wait until the next election cycle to become eligible for re-election. Incomplete terms resulting from vacancies filled pursuant to Section 6 of this Article shall not be counted for purposes of the foregoing three (3) consecutive term limit.

Section 4. Resignation

Any director may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Chair, who shall bring such resignation to the attention of directors and officers of the Corporation in a timely manner and, in any case, before the next meeting of the Board of Directors. Such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein, or, if no time is specified, at the time of acceptance thereof as determined by the Chair.

Section 5. Removal

Any director may be removed from such office by a two-thirds affirmative vote of all the directors present at any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors at which a quorum is present, for: (1) violation of these Bylaws; or (2) engaging in any other conduct prejudicial to the best interests of the Corporation.

Such removal may occur only if the director involved is first provided:

- (3) a written explanation as to why (if such is the case) such director is removed.

In this regard, the Board shall act on the basis of reasonable and consistent criteria, always with the objective of advancing the best interests of the Corporation. The removal from the Board of Directors of a director who is also an officer of the Corporation shall constitute his or her automatic termination from office.

The Board of Directors may, by resolution, provide for the holding of additional regular meetings.

Section 9. Special Meetings

Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called at the direction of the Chair of the Board or by a majority of the voting directors then in office, to be held at such time, day and place as shall be designated in the notice of the meeting.

If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail in a sealed envelope so addressed, with postage thereon prepaid. If notice is given by telegram, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when the telegram is delivered to the telegraph company. The purpose or purposes for which a special meeting is called shall be stated in the notice thereof. Any director may waive notice of any meeting. The attendance of a director at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 11. Quorum

Fifty-one (51) percent of the directors entitled to vote shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board of Directors. If less than such number of directors is present at such meeting, a majority of the directors present entitled to vote may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice.

Section 12. Manner of Acting

Except as otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation or the Bylaws, the act of a majority of directors present (even if by phone) and voting at a meeting of the Board of Directors shall be the act of the Board of Directors. In the absence of a quorum, any action taken shall be recommendatory only, but may become valid if subsequently confirmed by a majority vote of the members of the Board of Directors present and voting in conformance with the quorum requirements.
